

March 2011

Welcome to the first edition of the INDOSOW Newsletter. The e-newsletter is designed for potential applicants to the first European doctorate in social work and social policy, and other interested stakeholders who wish to be kept up-to date with developments, events and actualities within the international partnership network of the programme. INDOSOW – International Doctoral Studies in Social Work is a 3-year third-level study programme developed and carried out by five European schools of social work:

- Faculty of Social Work, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia
- Alice Salomon Hochschule Berlin in cooperation with the - University of Siegen, Germany
- Faculty of Health and Social Care, Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge, UK
- University of Jyväskylä, Jyväskylä, Finland

Each edition of the Newsletter features, amongst other things, information regarding the network's admissions policies and processes, overview of past events and a guide to forthcoming events. The newsletter will be published at the beginning of each month.

INTENSIVE STUDY PROGRAMME

Doctoral studies in social work and social policy: teaching comparative perspective within an international context

Venue: Faculty for Social Work, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia.

The programme is coordinated by the University of Ljubljana (Slovenia) with partners from Alice Salomon University of Applied Sciences (Germany), Anglia Ruskin University (UK), University of Jyväskylä (Finland) and St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences (Austria). The intensive programme is designed for doctoral students of social work but also for other postgraduate students who have a special interest in the comparative social work and social policy research on a higher academic level. The courses will cover three main topics: “Theories of social work and social policy: international perspectives”, “Comparative methodology of social work and social policy research”, and “Comparative perspective of diversity studies in social work”. More information on the website www.indosow.net.
